Greetings,

Sometimes, it seems to me, that we take the events of Holy Week and Easter for granted. Some of this is due to the fact that we are so far removed from the events. Some of this is due to the fact that so many of us are so familiar with the stories themselves. The magic of the gospel accounts becomes just another story that we hear or read and then move on from.

While you read this I'd like for you to try to imagine what it must have been like for the disciples to find Jesus' tomb empty. I can imagine any number of feelings must have flooded through their minds. Sadness thinking that the tomb had been raided. Joy over the idea that what Jesus had said about rising in three days had come true. Confusion about whether or not Jesus had really died the previous Friday. Any combination of the above (or others).

I find myself feeling different feelings at Easter time. Sometimes I feel awed by it all. The immensity of the passion narrative and the glorious events of Easter... wow, just wow! Sometimes I feel ashamed knowing that it was my sin, in part, that paved the way to the cross. Sometimes I feel honored knowing that God cared for all of humanity enough to allow Jesus to experience all of human life (including rejection and death). Most of all I feel hope. I know that Jesus has gone before and will be there with me no matter what I have to face here on earth up to and including death and just as he had a resurrection so too will he provide me with resurrection when that day comes for me. How great is that?

Until Next Time,

Pastor Stanton

Wisconsin Conference Apportionments Update

In 2019, changes were made to the way the Wisconsin Annual Conference receives Apportionments. It gives the ability of Churches or individuals to designate which of three areas that the apportionments can be sent to. They are General Conference, Jurisdictional Conference, and the Wisconsin Conference. Unless designated specifically to one of these Apportionment payments will go to all three. If a Church or an individual donor designates a specific apportionment area, the payment will go to that one only. This results in an opportunity for an individual or a Church to make a statement if there is a disagreement regarding actions taken by the General or the Wisconsin Annual Conference.

CUMC Church Council decided not to designate apportionment payments to any specific area, so they will be divided among all three options.

Church Council meeting minutes will no longer be printed in the newsletter. Instead, we will print the highlights. The full minutes will be available outside the office and on shullsburgumc.com.

March 9 meeting:

- Trustees items: Tree trimming is done; getting prices on windows.
- Hired a new janitor.
- Discussed a new mission statement for the church.
- Fellowship Group will be doing an Easter break fast this year.

Leadership Positions Open

The newly-formed Accountable Leadership Board will need 9-12 board members as well as numerous team members. If you'd like to serve, please look for the yellow application outside the office or on the church website www.shullsburgumc.com.

WI UM Summer Camp Scholarships

The Wisconsin conference offers a variety of summer camps for children, youth, and families. Some are week-long; some are just for a weekend. All camps are led by trained staff and held at both Pine Lake and Lake Lucerne in central Wisconsin.

Centenary has a scholarship fund available! If your child or family would like to attend a camp but the cost is an issue, please talk to someone in the church office...don't miss this great opportunity!

To see the camps available or get more information, check out the Summer Camp 2020 catalog on the table outside the office or wiumcamps.org.

“What is Palm Sunday?”

Palm Sunday is the Sunday before Easter that begins the Holy Week. It is the day that we remember and celebrate the day Jesus entered into Jerusalem as Savior and King. As Jesus rode a donkey into the town of Jerusalem a large crowd gathered and laid palm branches and their cloaks across the road, giving Jesus royal treatment. The hundreds of people shouted "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Centenary will be celebrating Palm Sunday on April 5 @ 9:30 a.m.

"What is Maundy Thursday / Holy Thursday?"

Maundy Thursday, also known as "Holy Thursday," is the Thursday of Passion Week, one day before Good Friday (the Friday before Easter). Maundy Thursday is the name given to the day on which Jesus celebrated the Passover with His disciples, known as the Last Supper. Two important events are the focus of Maundy Thursday.

First, Jesus celebrated the Last Supper with His disciples and thereby instituted the Lord's Supper, also called Communion (Luke 22:19-20). Some Christian churches observe a special Communion service on Maundy Thursday in memory of Jesus' Last Supper with His disciples. Second, Jesus washed the disciples' feet as an act of humility and service, thereby setting an example that we should love and serve one another in humility (John 13:3-17). Some Christian churches observe a foot-washing ceremony on Maundy Thursday to commemorate Jesus' washing the feet of the disciples.

The word Maundy is derived from the Latin word for “command.” The “Maundy” in “Maundy Thursday” refers to the command Jesus gave to the disciples at the Last Supper, that they should love and serve one another. It is a good thing to remember the Last Supper and Jesus’ sacrifice on our behalf. It is a good thing to remember the Lord’s example of humility.

Observing a special Lord’s Supper service on Maundy Thursday/Holy Thursday in remembrance of the Last Supper is a good thing to do. Let’s just make sure we are observing Maundy Thursday in a way that truly honors what happened at the Last Supper.

Centenary will be celebrating Maundy/Holy Thursday on Thursday, April 9 @ 6:30 p.m.

"What is Good Friday?"

Good Friday is the Friday immediately preceding Easter Sunday. It is celebrated traditionally as the day on which Jesus was crucified.

Why is Good Friday referred to as “good”? What the Jewish authorities and Romans did to Jesus was definitely not good (see Matthew chapters 26-27). However, the results of Christ’s death are very good! Romans 5:8, “But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” First Peter 3:18 tells us, “For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit.”

Many Christian churches celebrate Good Friday with a subdued service, usually in the evening, in which Christ’s death is remembered with solemn hymns, prayers of thanksgiving, a message centered on Christ’s suffering for our sakes, and observance of the Lord’s Supper. Whether or not Christians choose to “celebrate” Good Friday, the events of that day should be ever on our minds because the death of Christ on the cross—along with His bodily resurrection—is the paramount event of the Christian faith.

Centenary’s Good Friday service will be Friday, April 10 @ 6:30 p.m.

"What is Holy Saturday?"

Holy Saturday is the name given to the day between Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Some Christians recognize Holy Saturday, the seventh day of Holy Week, as the day on which Jesus “rested” from His work of providing salvation. As Jesus died, He called out, “It is finished!” There was no further price to pay; sin had been atoned for.

After His crucifixion, Jesus was laid in a nearby tomb, and His body remained there the entirety of Holy Saturday (Matthew 27:59-60; Mark 15:46; Luke 23:53-54; John 19:39-42). Churches that celebrate Holy Saturday traditionally do so by observing a day of somber reflection as they contemplate the world of darkness that would exist without the hope of Christ’s resurrection.

Indeed, without the resurrection of Christ, we would be in dire straits. If Christ had never been raised, “your faith is futile; you are still in your sins” (1 Corinthians 15:17). The disciples had scattered when Jesus was arrested (Mark 14:50), and they spent the first Holy Saturday hiding for fear of also being arrested (John 20:19). The day between Christ’s crucifixion and His resurrection would have been a time of grief and shock as the stunned disciples tried to understand the murder of Jesus, the betrayal of Judas, and the dashing of their hopes.

The only biblical reference to what happened on Holy Saturday is found in Matthew 27:62-66. After sundown on Friday—the day of Preparation—the chief priests and Pharisees visited Pontius Pilate. This visit was on the Sabbath, since the Jews reckoned a day as starting at sundown. They asked Pilate for a guard for Jesus' tomb. They remembered Jesus saying that He would rise again in three days (John 2:19-21) and wanted to do everything they could to prevent that. As we know, the Roman guards were inadequate to prevent the resurrection, and the women who returned to the tomb Sunday morning found it empty. The Lord had risen.

Centenary's Holy Saturday worship will be Saturday, April 11 @ 7:00 p.m.

"What is Easter Sunday?"

There is a lot of confusion regarding what Easter Sunday is all about. For some, Easter Sunday is about the Easter Bunny, colorfully decorated Easter eggs, and Easter egg hunts. Most people understand that Easter Sunday has something to do with the resurrection of Jesus, but are confused as to how the resurrection is related to the Easter eggs and the Easter bunny.

Biblically speaking, there is absolutely no connection between the resurrection of Jesus Christ and the common modern traditions related to Easter Sunday. Essentially, what occurred is that in order to make Christianity more attractive to non-Christians, the ancient church mixed the celebration of Jesus' resurrection with celebrations that involved spring fertility rituals. These spring fertility rituals are the source of the egg and bunny traditions.

As a result of this, many Christians feel strongly that the day on which we celebrate Jesus' resurrection should not be referred to as "Easter Sunday." Rather, something like "Resurrection Sunday" would be far more appropriate and biblical. For the Christian, it is unthinkable that we would allow the silliness of Easter eggs and the Easter bunny to be the focus of the day instead of Jesus' resurrection.

The Bible makes it clear that Jesus was resurrected on the first day of the week, Sunday (Matthew 28:1; Mark 16:2,9; Luke 24:1; John 20:1,19). Jesus' resurrection is most worthy of being celebrated (see 1 Corinthians 15). So, by all means, celebrate Christ's resurrection on Easter Sunday. Christ's resurrection is something that should be celebrated every day, not just once a year. At the same time, if we choose to celebrate Easter Sunday, we should not allow the fun and games to distract our attention from what the day should truly be all about—the fact that Jesus was resurrected from the dead, and that His resurrection demonstrates that we can indeed be promised an eternal home in Heaven by receiving Jesus as our Savior.

Centenary's Celebration of the Resurrection will be Sunday, April 12 @ 9:30 a.m.

Adult Bible Study

Wednesdays at 6:15 p.m., Serenity Room

He left everything to follow his teacher and possessed a passion that would change the world. That's one way to describe Peter. Here's another: poor, uneducated, quick-tempered, and full of doubts and fears. Doesn't even sound like the same man.

And that's the point of Simon Peter, a new book and six-week adult Bible study by Adam Hamilton. Peter was just an ordinary guy who heard and followed God's extraordinary call.

Come join us on Wednesday nights while we learn about Jesus and his Disciples and have some great conversation. All adults are welcome at any time. If you can't make it one Wednesday, come the next. There's always something new to learn each week. And we have a lot of fun!

Retired & Re-Fired Small Group

I wish I could give each of you a hug right now. Since I can't do that, please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. I pray you are healthy. If you are not feeling well, my prayer is for healing. And through all the insecurity and craziness of these days, I pray you will still know the love, joy, and peace of God.

Remember the song we learned in Sunday school so many years ago – "Jesus Loves Me". He still loves you. Trust him.

April is National Stress Awareness Month

Everyone tends to become overwhelmed and stressed out at times. Stress is beneficial when it gives us the boost we need to get through situations like an important personal commitment, work deadlines, or exams. However, extreme stress has adverse health consequences that affect many of the bodily systems. Unless you learn how to manage your stress, you will suffer mentally, emotionally, and physically. Managing your stress can take some practice, but it is possible. Here are five things you should know about stress:

1. Stress affects everyone.

Everyone experiences stress from time to time. There are different types of stress—all of which carry physical and mental health risks. A stressor may be a one-time or short-term occurrence, or it can happen repeatedly over a long time. Some people may cope with stress more effectively and recover from stressful events more quickly than others. Examples of stress include:

- Routine stress related to the pressures of school, work, family, and other daily responsibilities.
- Stress brought about by a sudden negative change, such as losing a job, divorce, or illness.
- Traumatic stress experienced during an event such as a major accident, war, assault, or natural disaster where people may be in danger of being seriously hurt or killed. People who experience traumatic stress may have very distressing temporary emotional and physical symptoms, but most recover naturally soon after.

2. Not all stress is bad.

In a dangerous situation, stress signals the body to prepare to face a threat or flee to safety. In these situations, your pulse quickens, you breathe faster, your muscles tense, and your brain uses more oxygen and increases activity—all functions are aimed at survival and in response to stress. In non-life-threatening situations, stress can motivate people, such as when they need to take a test or interview for a new job.

3. Long-term stress can harm your health.

Coping with the impact of chronic stress can be challenging. Because long-term stress in a person is more constant than acute stress, the body never receives a clear signal to return back to normal functioning. With chronic stress, those same lifesaving reactions in the body can also disturb the immune, digestive, cardiovascular, sleep, and reproductive systems. Some people may experience mainly digestive symptoms, while others may have headaches, sleeplessness, sadness, anger, or irritability.

Over time, continued strain on your body from stress may contribute to serious health problems, such as heart disease, high blood pressure, diabetes, and other illnesses, including mental disorders such as depression or anxiety.

4. There are ways to manage stress.

If you take practical steps to manage your stress, you may reduce the risk of negative health effects. Here are some tips that may help you to cope with stress:

- Be observant. Recognize the signs of your body's response to stress, such as difficulty sleeping, increased alcohol and other substance use, being easily angered, feeling depressed, or having low energy.
- Talk to your health care provider or a health professional. Don't wait for your health care provider to ask about your stress. Start the conversation and get proper health care for existing or new health problems. Effective treatments can help if your stress is affecting your relationships or ability to work.
- Get regular exercise. Just 30 minutes per day of walking can help boost your mood and improve your health.
- Try a relaxing activity. Explore relaxation or wellness programs such as meditation, muscle relaxation, or breathing exercises. Schedule regular times for these and other healthy and relaxing activities.
- Set goals and priorities. Decide what must get done now and what can wait. Learn to say "no" to new tasks if you start to feel like you are taking on too much. Try to be mindful of what you have accomplished at the end of the day, not what you have been unable to do.
- Stay connected. You are not alone. Keep in touch with people who can provide emotional support and practical help. To reduce stress, ask for help from friends, family, and community or religious organizations. It is OK to ask for and accept help!

5. If you are overwhelmed by stress, ask for help from a health professional.

You should seek help right away if you have suicidal thoughts, are overwhelmed, feel you cannot cope, or are using drugs or alcohol more frequently as a result of stress. Your doctor may be able to provide recommendations or connect you with resources that are available to help you.

Anyone can become overwhelmed. If you or a loved one is having thoughts of suicide, call the confidential toll-free National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255), available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
