Greetings,

This fall is the 10th anniversary of an event that most of you probably haven't even heard of (or, if you have heard, probably forgotten). It is recounted in the book called Remember Why You Play by David Thomas. It is a book about football; specifically, about the Faith Christian Lions in Grapeville, Texas. You see, the Faith Christian Lions did something that is really quite remarkable. The final game of their 2008 season was against Gainesville State School Tornadoes. Gainesville State School is a school for teenage inmates and as a result every game for them is a road game.

What made the game extraordinary was that before the game the Faith Christian Lions fans decided that they were going to treat the Tornadoes like the home team.

"Before the game, Faith parents and students formed a 40-yard-long spirit line and held a banner for Tornadoes players to run through when they entered the field. Then about half of the Faith fans and cheerleaders moved over to the visitors' side of the stadium and cheered for Gainesville State players throughout the game. Among those cheering were parents of Faith players, encouraging kids they did not know to tackle their own sons." (Thomas, introduction)

When news of what the Faith Christian School had done for the players of Gainesville State got out, they (Faith Christian) found themselves the object of news reports and interviews, something which the coach and players for Faith Christian didn't understand. Turns out that the Faith Christian Lions were just doing what they felt was the right thing to do.

In our sports crazed society, I wonder how many of us would do the same thing if we were faced with the same circumstances as the Faith Christian Lions. How many of us would root against our loved ones so that we could root for incarcerated teenagers? And consider this... how sad is it that we live in a society that a team's fans extending kindness becomes a national story? It seems to me that the time has come for a change and that that change begins with each one of us.

Until Next Time,

Pastor Stanton

To Love You More.....

It is the job of the pastor, leaders and whole congregation to care for the body of the church. We are called to love as Jesus loved. The church doesn't always know when you are hurt, having surgery, going through a tough time, or in the hospital. If you would like a visit from the pastor, please let the church know. Pastor Stanton will have a regular visiting hour from 10:00-11:00 am Monday mornings. If you would like Pastor Stanton to visit you on a Monday morning, please call the church office to set up a time!

Day of Prayer

Saturday, November 17 8:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.

There is a sign-up sheet in the narthex for you and your family to sign up to come and pray for Centenary UMC for a half-hour time slot during the Day of Prayer.

In addition, there will be two offering plates set up in the narthex during this time. One will be for your 2019 Stewardship pledge cards. Please pray and see what God is calling you to give, whether a set amount for the year on a monthly or weekly basis, as well as whether He is asking for you to increase your financial support of CUMC this year. In order to financially plan for 2019, the Finance Committee would greatly appreciate if all pledge cards be brought in on the Day of Prayer, during worship services that weekend, or mailed to the church office (through the 30th).

The second offering plate will be for anyone who has been blessed this year and feels called by God to make a Holiday Gift or offering beyond their normal giving.

Let us, by the grace of God, through Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit start the program year off right with this incredibly important and holy time of prayer and stewardship.

Stewardship News

Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity

One of Jesus' great teaching parables involves a sower who cast seed along the ground. The sower hoped the seeds would sprout, grow, and bear good fruit. Some seeds did just that, producing a great harvest. But others, Jesus said, fell among thorns and, though they began to grow, these good plants were quickly choked out. Jesus said the thorns were "the cares of the world and the lure of wealth" (Matthew 13:22).

In a culture where having "enough" seems to have become a never-ending pursuit, Jesus' parable remains incredibly relevant. Many of us are chasing the American dream in ways that lead to stress, anxiety, and fear—thorns that can rob us of the ability to enjoy the abundant lives of purpose that God intended for us.

All of us have struggled with these issues at one time or another. They are important issues that we cannot ignore. This is why, during October and November, we will be having a churchwide study and worship emphasis called Enough: Discovering Joy Through Simplicity and Generosity. During this time, we will explore what the Bible teaches us about financial management through corporate worship and small group study. We'll hear expert advice and stories about what others have learned by working through financial challenges. Each week we will provide you with some practical tools you can use to assess your financial situation and develop a financial plan with a biblical foundation.

At the conclusion of the emphasis, we will have the opportunity to make personal commitments of our offerings to God through our church in the coming year. We will consecrate these commitments in the worship service on two consecutive weeks. (See the schedule that below.)

I hope you will join us in the coming weeks as we look at how we can manage our financial resources and truly experience simplicity, generosity, and joy.

Wednesday, November 14

5:30 p.m. Potluck 6:30 p.m. Praise Service
including the Sacrament of Holy Communion

This year's Thanksgiving Potluck Dinner will be Wednesday, November 14 at 5:30. The Fellowship Group will be serving the traditional turkey and fixings; please bring a side dish or dessert if you are able, and come share in a wonderful meal. (There will be a sign-up sheet in the back of the sanctuary for items needed for the dinner. If you are able to purchase something, please put your name on the sheet.)

The dinner is open to the public, so tell your friends and neighbors to come and enjoy a time of food, fun and friends. Then stay for the Wednesday Night Service.

Centenary will once again be sponsoring some families who could use a little extra help this Christmas. If you would like to be a part of this team (making and writing out ornaments, setting up the tree, sorting the gifts as they come in, etc.) please let the church office know.

Also, if you know of a family who would be a good candidate for sponsorship (some guidelines do apply), contact the church office, then the team will reach out to those families.

We like to have the tree and ornaments up by the weekend BEFORE Thanksgiving for any of you who shop on Black Friday, so to give us enough time, we would like to have family names by the week of November 4.

Fill the Sills for Jesus!

Again this year Centenary UMC is attempting to fill all the window sills in the sanctuary during the Advent and Christmas season with non-perishable food gifts to offer to Jesus on His birthday by donating them to those in need through the beloved ministry of the CUMC Food Pantry! Please start bringing food products into church or to worship services, and let's fill the sills again this year to provide food for our beloved brothers and sisters and God's beloved children! LET'S FILL THE SILLS! Amen!

November Missional Giving

Mission money collected this month will go to Christmas Blessings Giving Tree. This money will help cover the cost of items that are left on the tree to be purchased. If you would like to give to a different ministry, just write it on your envelope, but if you don't, it will go to this month's cause.

Advent by Candlelight

Sunday, December 2 6:00 p.m.

Save the date for our 6th Annual Women's Advent by Candlelight. Watch our Facebook page for more information. Join us for a fun evening of worship, singing, beautifully decorated tables, and delicious desserts served by the men of our church. If you would like to decorate/host a table, all you need to do is decorate a table for 8 people with your favorite Christmas decor and varying sizes of candles to light it. Then invite 7 friends to join you. It's that simple! The entire room will be lit by candles as we listen to lessons and carols as we prepare our hearts for the Advent season. Please contact the Becky Upmann (608-482-3920) if you would like to host a table, have any questions, or would like more details. Hope to see you there!

Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is a project of Samaritan's Purse, an international relief organization. Their mission is to provide local partners around the world with shoeboxes filled with small toys, hygiene items, and school supplies as a means of reaching out to children in their own communities with the Good News of Jesus Christ. They ship these simple gifts outside the United States to children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine, and disease; and to children living on Native American reservations in the U.S.

If you would like to pack a box, grab an information sheet from the welcome table. Filled boxes (both cardboard and plastic boxes are OK) can be returned to the church office BY November 11 so we can get them to our collection point.

If you have any questions, please contact Becky Mootz at 778-2050, on Facebook, beckyandbrad2001@yahoo.com, or at the church office.

Retired & Re-Fired Small Group

It was a beautiful day October 22 as our group traveled to visit Marsha Kremer and her sheep. Our trip was a kick-off for our study of the Twenty Third Psalm. It was great to see Marsha and also to hear her prospective on shepherding sheep. They are not the easiest animals to take care of.

This month we will be making the Christmas cards to send to all those on our R& R mailing list.

We meet on the 2nd and 4th Mondays at noon in the Fellowship Hall. We always welcome visitors and new members.

Wednesday Night Faith Study in November

Does the uncertainty and chaos of life keep you up at night?

Is irrational worry your constant companion?

Could you use some calm?

Wednesday Night Faith Study will be starting a new book in November. Anxious for Nothing invites readers to delve into Philippians 4:6-7. Join Max Lucado on the journey to true freedom and experience more joy, clarity, physical renewal, and contentment by the power of the Holy Spirit. Anxiety comes with life. But it doesn't have to dominate your life.

We meet every Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. and finish at 7:00. Join us for some interesting conversation and great fellowship.

Wednesday Nights Ministry Dinner & Worship

If you cannot be in church on Sundays, Wednesday evenings provide a great alternative. The best part is that you don't have to mess up your kitchen. Let us do the work! All you have to do is join us at 5:30 for dinner. THIS IS A FREE MEAL and is open to the public. New this year is delivery for LOCAL SHUT INS. Please contact the church office at 965-3455 or Dawn at 482-0822 to have a meal delivered to you.

Worship begins at 6:00. This year will be like last year, as we will have dinner and worship in the Fellowship hall. If you are not finished when service starts, you can keep eating as worship begins. We still have our cooking rotation! We currently have 6 cooks that will rotate and bring you delicious dinners on Wednesday nights, but we are always looking for more. We are looking for someone to coordinate Children's Church. If you are interested, please contact the church office.

Coming together in His name! Hope to see you on Wednesdays.

In Christ,

Wednesday Night Dinner Team

Inflammatory Bowel Disease Awareness

The two most common forms of a group of conditions known as inflammatory bowel diseases (IBD) are Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis. When reading about inflammatory bowel diseases, it is important to know that Crohn's disease is not the same thing as ulcerative colitis. The symptoms of these two illnesses are quite similar, but the areas affected in the gastrointestinal tract (GI tract) are different and they should also not be confused with irritable bowel Syndrome (IBS), a disorder that affects the muscle contractions of the colon. IBS is not characterized by intestinal inflammation.

Normally, the cells and proteins that make up the immune system protect you from infection. In people with IBD, however, the immune system mistakes food, bacteria, and other materials in the intestine for foreign or invading substances. When this happens, the body sends white blood cells into the lining of the intestines, where they produce chronic inflammation, ulcerations, thickening of the intestinal wall, and eventually causing patient symptoms.

Crohn's most commonly affects the end of the small bowel (the ileum) and the beginning of the colon, but it may affect any part of the gastrointestinal (GI) tract, from the mouth to the anus. Ulcerative Colitis is limited to the colon, also called the large intestine.

Crohn's disease can affect the entire thickness of the bowel wall, while ulcerative colitis only involves the innermost lining of the colon. Finally, in Crohn's disease, the inflammation of the intestine can "skip", leaving normal areas in between patches of diseased intestine. In ulcerative colitis this does not occur.

The causes of Crohn's disease are not well understood. Diet and stress may aggravate Crohn's Disease, but they do not cause the disease on their own. Recent research suggests hereditary, genetics, and/or environmental factors contribute to the development of Crohn's Disease.

Crohn's tends to run in families, so if you or a close relative have the disease, your family members have a significantly increased chance of developing Crohn's. Studies have shown that 5% to 20% of affected individuals have a first – degree relative (parents, child, or sibling) with one of the diseases. The risk is greater with Crohn's disease than ulcerative colitis. The risk is also substantially higher when both parents have IBD.

Ulcerative colitis is a chronic disease of the large intestine in which the lining of the colon becomes inflamed and develops tiny open sores, or ulcers, that produce pus and mucous. The combination of inflammation and ulceration can cause abdominal discomfort and frequent emptying of the colon. As with Crohn's, Ulcerative colitis is also the result of an abnormal response by your body's immune system.

Research sponsored by the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation has led many scientists to believe that ulcerative colitis may be the result of an interaction of a virus or bacterial infection of the colon and your body's natural immune system response. Normally, your immune system will cause temporary inflammation to combat an illness or infection, and then the inflammation will be reduced as you regain health. In people with ulcerative colitis, however, this inflammation can persist long after your immune system should have finished its job.

Ulcerative colitis may affect as many as 907,000 Americans. Men and women are equally likely to be affected, and most people are diagnosed in their mid-30s. The disease can occur at any age and older men are more likely to be diagnosed than older women.

While ulcerative colitis also tends to run in families, researchers have been unable to establish a clear pattern of inheritance. Studies show that up to 20 percent of people with ulcerative colitis will also have a close relative with the disease. The disease is more common among white people of European origin and among people of Jewish heritage.

Symptoms related to inflammation of the GI tract and associated with IBD:

Persistent Diarrhea

Rectal bleeding

Urgent need to move bowels

Abdominal cramps and pain

Sensation of incomplete evacuation

Constipation (can lead to bowel obstruction)

Fever

Loss of appetite

Weight Loss

Fatigue

Night sweats

Loss of normal menstrual cycle

Please feel free to call her with any health questions you might have.

If you think you are showing signs or symptoms of inflammatory bowel disease make an appointment with your physician as soon as possible. Only proper testing performed by your doctor can give you an actual diagnosis and the treatment that you will need.

A Vision For Our Church

"Centenary UMC will continue to be THE place to be for weekend worship. People will often drive by this church and think, 'That place is packed: I wonder what I'm missing?' Through our church culture and worship atmosphere we will provide the spiritual spark for people to see God in their
